

Manual Material Handling at Work

Plan LITE Handling

Load– The type, material, structure and weight of the load must always be identified before handling.

Individual – capacity of the individual/individuals handling the load must always be taken into consideration.

Task – Different task will require different approach. Make sure task is done safely, properly and efficiently

Environment – Inspection and assessment of the condition of the surrounding must always be done before the task commence

For more information, you can find the full Supervisor Safety Observation policy (22) on Treeline.

Supervisor
Crew
Talk

"Safety is a Core Value and Business Priority"

West Fraser