

Scaffolding Safety

What do you need to know about scaffolding?

- Scaffolding erection and dismantling must be done, or supervised, by a qualified person and tagged "safe to use"
- Vertical supports of scaffold must be;
 - Placed on a firm base or sill
 - Non-movable scaffold ONLY
 - Capable of withstanding superimposed weight from the scaffold and anything placed on the scaffold
- All scaffolds must be inspected before use by the persons who use it.
- All scaffolds must be erected plumb and level and be designed for its intended use

Identifying the Hazards is the First Step in Staying Safe

West Fraser Mills Ltd.

