

Falling Snow and Ice

In various areas throughout the mills, large icicles can form and have the potential to cause serious injury.

During colder months, be aware of your surroundings when walking outdoors and through doorways, and keep an eye out for ice buildup.

If you see an overhead ice hazard, please rope off the area, place an information tag for others, and notify your supervisor.

"Safety is a core value and business priority"

